LAUGH AND GROW FAT.

A collection of the best writings of this great author, most profusely illustrated, with over 560 pages. It is the fundest book ever pub-lished. Bill Nye needs no introduction. The mention of the book is enough.

BILL NYE'S REMARKS: "I have passed through an earthquake and an Indian outbreak, but I would rather ride an carthquake without saddle or bridle, that to be-stride a successful broncho eruption." "Age brings caution and a lot of shop-worn experience, purchased at the highest market price. Time brings vain regrets and wisdom teeth that can be left in a glass of water over sight."

"Too much of our hotel food tastes like the second day of January, or the fifth day of July. That's the whole thing in a few words, and un-less the good hotels are nearer together, we shall have to multiply our cemetery facilities."
